

---

JOHN W. HIBBS

---

PROFESSIONAL CAREER

Residence

Current	Founder, Benjamin Franklin Institute of Global Education — The Institute provides training and placement for motivated college graduates to work abroad. Hosts Global Learn Day, a 24 hour non-stop web event that features the best and brightest in distance education in 24 time zones.	San Diego
1992-1996	Developed export curriculum for the Institute and trained American teachers in Hungary, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Baltic States and Russia about technology in the international marketplace.	Prague
1982-1992	Owner, United Amusements, Inc. Built from scratch multi-million dollar video game software company with worldwide sales and leadership role in the coin industry.	Los Angeles Tokyo
1978-1992	Managing Director, Twelve Signs International Developed and implemented worldwide sales program for highly unusual magazine published in Los Angeles in six languages and distributed in 37 countries.	London Tokyo
1967-1978	Vice President, The Getz Corporation Getz is America's largest trading company with widely diverse activities worldwide. Opened Korean branch office; quintupled liquor and milk powder sales, awarded several promotions.	Seoul Taipei Singapore San Francisco

EDUCATION & MILITARY

Master of Business Administration, (Finance) Golden Gate University	San Francisco
Bachelor of Science, History, University of Oregon	Eugene

Course Work

London School of Economics	London
University of Mexico	Mexico City

Military

United States Army — Africa/Middle East Special Forces	Izmir, Turkey
United States Army — Special Forces	Ft. Bragg, NC

REFERENCES:	Mr. Jon Daugherty, President, United Artists Mr. Charles Hards, C.P.A., Kaufman & Hards
--------------------	--